South St & Maiden Ln

For those who love dinner with a view, Industry Kitchen has just opened up in the financial district. The sprawling 5000 sq feet space features views of Brooklyn and the East River seen from outdoor seating or indoors through floor to ceiling windows.

Other touches include reclaimed plank wood, black tile, and raw concrete (Ahhh, Industry Kitchen - I get it). The menu centers around a wood-fired oven and features grilled & roasted meat dishes, wood fired pizzas and salads.
