

Top 10 Things to Do And See In The Financial District | Putting The Fun In Finance

At the southern tip of the great isle of Manhattan is the oft overlooked and misunderstood Financial District. Easily associated with the hustle and bustle of the Wall Street worker, FIDI has many more restaurants, bars, and attractions for those willing to make the trip down south. As they say, things are hotter down by the water. Here is a list of the top 10 things to do and see while down in the district.

The East Coast: Luchador, Industry Kitchen, and Pier 15

The east coast of FIDI is a great spot for a romantic evening. If Mexican food is in the mix, Luchador is a terrific spot. It's funky and delicious. Where else can you eat a burrito in an old trailer hitch? Or for drinks, pick the Industry Kitchen. Located just off the east side running path, its perfect for a glass of wine al fresco. From there it's a short walk to Pier 15, which stretches out over the east river and faces the lights of Brooklyn.
