Industry Kitchen's is The Prime Viewing Spot for July 4th!

By Ryan Shea - Jun 14, 2016

4th of July is less than a month away, and Manhattan is of course the best place in the country to be for Fireworks galore, fun with friends and family, and the magic of the holiday overall. There is one place that is promising to provide the best of everything, from food, drink, location and more. This is Industry Kitchen, and they have some fun things planned to celebrate the big day.

Industry Kitchen, the South Street Seaport's newest waterfront, restaurant & bar, under the FDR, is the prime location and viewing spot for this year's Macy's Fireworks display spectacular, hosting their 4th of July Celebration and Independence Day Party.

Nestled along the East River next to the historic South Street Seaport, Industry Kitchen is just steps from the water's edge. The stunning 5,000 square-foot venue accommodates up to 300 guests with indoor and outdoor seating, allowing unobstructed views of the East River with the Brooklyn and Williamsburg Bridges and Brooklyn Skyline.

Not only is the view spectacular, but their floor-to-ceiling windows seamlessly separate the indoor and outdoor areas, framing the Macy's fireworks display front and center, which can be enjoyed from any seat. Guests have the option to dine at the scenic outdoors or sit at the freestanding island bar, while sipping the restaurant's thirst quenching signature cocktails, wines and craft beers.

Each guest in the restaurant will have a reserved table or bar seating for the evening. Seating will be assigned on a first come/first served basis. Seating opens early with a cash bar at 5:00pm, with an open bar to follow at 7:00pm. All pricing includes sales tax and gratuity.

With a front row seat to watch the Macy fireworks spectacular, this family friendly event is loaded with amenities which will surely create memories to last a lifetime. Take a look at the event invitation here, and have fun!
