Are you ready to be introduced to the latest food item that will have your mouth watering and have you DYING to fly across the country to NYC for?

Introducing: The Pop Candy Land Pizza from Industry Kitchen in New York.

The 'pizza' is 'unicorn inspired' and is made from a rainbow sugar cookie crust, topped with cream cheese frosting, Pop Rocks, cotton candy and sprinkles.

Can you say sugar rush?! But also DELICIOUS?

Sure you can call it an extreme cookie cake, but calling it a Pop Candy Land Pizza is more fun. And the photos are so fun too:

My mouth is totally watering.

I'm gonna have to try to squeeze in time in my next trip to New York to get a piece of this...
