

CELEBRATE PRIDE MONTH WITH THESE CRAZY UNICORN-THEMED FOODS

Some would argue that we've reached peak unicorn, but we beg to differ. With more rainbow-colored creations available than ever in NYC, we're pretty sure colors now count as food groups. These colorful eats coincide with Pride Month, which is a time to honor the LGBTQ+ community and the journey toward equal rights. No matter where you lie on the spectrum, these unicorn-themed foods are a great way to celebrate and bring awareness to the Pride cause.

UNICORN PIZZA

Unicorn gets the savory treatment... sort of. Industry Kitchen has crafted a rainbow "pizza," dubbed the Pop Candy Land Pizza. It's rainbow dough topped with icing, sprinkles, candy, cotton candy, and more sprinkles. With eight slices of sugary goodness, this treat is perfect for fueling up your crew post-Pride rally.
