

Unicorn “Pizza” Really Tears It

The unicorn food trend is definitely on the downward slide, but NYC restaurant Industry Kitchen is really running it into the ground with their Pop Candy Land Pizza. Fortunately, no cheese is involved, so they didn't go quite as far as they could have.

Cosmopolitan notes that the pizza is made with rainbow dough that's covered in colorful vanilla icing, sprinkles, and Pop Rocks. The whole thing is topped with cotton candy and even more sprinkles and Pop Rocks.
