

16 Haute Places To Dine This Christmas In New York City

BY ASHLEY FERN | DINING + DRINKING, NEWS | DECEMBER 5, 2018

Christmas will be here before we know it which means its time to make those festive reservations. For those who like to celebrate outside of the home we rounded up 15 haute spots in New York City that will be sure to delight and satisfy.

Industry Kitchen

Photo Credit: Industry Kitchen

Celebrate Christmas at Industry Kitchen, the new-American restaurant in the South St. Seaport. This winter, the restaurant has been decked out to resemble a holiday chalet with a trio of Christmas trees and reindeer in the entryway, twinkling lights, wreaths and holly and tasty holiday treats. Open Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, Industry Kitchen's winter menu features warm comfort dishes like the Squash Pot with mushroom ragu, Pumpkin Tagliatelle with shaved truffle, and more. Indulge in festive dishes and libations like the Gingernut Pizza, with a gingerbread crust, eggnog frosting, spicy pecans and sprinkles and the Frozen Peppermint Slide, a giant shareable cocktail with Baileys, candy canes, peppermint bark and pretzel rods for a true Christmas in a cup.