

The best places for Christmas brunch in NYC

The best Christmas brunch in NYC include Southern-comfort meals, fancy French menus and modern Israeli plates

Christmas in New York comes with plenty of traditions, from checking out Christmas window displays to taking in one of theater's best Christmas shows to sitting down with your loved ones for Christmas brunch at a top-notch restaurant. Cheers the season with Bloody Marys and tuck into holiday prix fixes and a la carte menus that will leave your belly warm until the tree comes down.

Photograph: Courtesy Industry Kitchen NYC

Restaurants, Contemporary American

Industry Kitchen

 Financial District

The modern American restaurant in the South Street Seaport will be open regular hours for brunch on Christmas Day in the space decorated like a winter chalet. You can enjoy squash pot with mushroom ragu, pumpkin tagliatelle with shaved truffle and the Frozen Peppermint Slide with Baileys, candy canes and peppermint bark.

Read more

Book online